

IGPC Marks Pres. Trump's Worldwide Visits

Fans of President Donald Trump will enjoy a new series of issues marking his worldwide travels since he became President. The issues by various U.N. Members was led by his historic visit to Jerusalem and the dedication of the U.S. Embassy there.

In the news release for the Marshall Islands issue, the Inter-Governmental Philatelic Corp., itself a strong supporter of Israel, noted, "It is no secret that the United States and Israel share a very strong relationship. In fact, Israel has been the longest standing ally of the United States in the Middle East and the citizens have always been of one mind on both sides of the political spectrum regarding this situation."

IGPC represents more than 70 Postal Administrations. In addition to the Marshall Islands Jerusalem visit souvenir sheet, other recent issues from IGPC client nations include Pres. Trump's visit to China and his meeting with Pres. Xi Jinping (upper right, in a souvenir sheet from Grenada).

The first visit by Japanese Prime Minister Shinzo Abe in February 2017 also was recognized, in a souvenir sheet from Palau.

Most recently, Antigua & Barbuda issued a souvenir sheet to celebrate the visit of Pres. Trump and his family to Pope Francis in the Vatican.

There are many other Trump-related issues on the IGPC site, going back to his election night victory celebration and subsequent inauguration, as well as other worldwide visits.

For additional information on these and other IGPC-orchestrated topical issues, please go to www.igpc.com

